Liturgy Of The Word

In the reading from the Book of Revelation, John has a vision of heaven, filled with people from every nation and tribe worshiping God. In his First Letter, John writes that we are God's children now and by placing our hope in him are made pure as [God] is pure.

Jesus teaches the beatitudes to his disciples in the Gospel.

The saints model Christian holiness & pray for us from heaven.

Like those in Revelation whose robes have been washed ... in the Blood of the Lamb, the saints come from every nation and have followed Christ in every Christian vocation.

We are called to follow Christ's example and live the beatitudes.

The saints give us a model of this holiness so that we might also praise God for all eternity.

A Family Perspective

Anyone can appear saintly in front of strangers, but it is the daily acts of patience, acceptance, forgiveness, listening, and self-sacrifice within the family that truly embody religious devotion. Family life is the true ground of sanctity.

Marriage Moment

November 1 is All Saints Day in which the Catholic Church honors all saints known and unknown. Your spouse may not always act like a saint. None of us do, but I bet you can find a saintly quality if you pay attention. Is he or she generous, humble, self-sacrificing, courageous... Celebrate the saint you are living with today.

Beginning November 2, the 2027 Mass book will be open for scheduling intentions.

The practice of requesting a Mass to be offered for loved ones, living or deceased, is a beautiful and meaningful part of our Catholic tradition. At St. Joseph Parish we have many requests for scheduling Mass intentions. Due to the limited number of weekend Masses, we initially ask that only two requests are made for weekend Masses, and 5 for weekday masses.

After the majority of requests are received by the end of February and if weekend Masses are still available the book will be open for more requests. We try to honor all these requests to the best of our ability.

Masses will be scheduled on a first come first served basis. Thank you for your understanding!

Hallowtide

The Office of the Dead is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, and is available for the faithful to pray all year but is mandatory for priests and religious to pray on All Souls Day. It is a combination of psalms, antiphons, readings, and prayers designed to be prayed for the souls of all the faithful departed. Everything calls back to the death of the physical body and the hope we have in the risen Christ.

It's haunting and beautiful, and a unique expression of our Catholic faith. Pray the Office of the Dead on Monday, November 2nd in honor of all those who have died.

All Saints Day & All Souls Day: Two Days, One Beautiful Truth

Together, these celebrations illuminate what the Church calls the Communion of Saints: the spiritual union of the faithful on earth, the souls undergoing purification, and the saints in heaven. Although separated by death, we remain united in Christ.

St. Joseph Memorial Mass of Remembrance is on November 7 at 5:30pm.

At this Mass we will remember in a special way all our parishioners who died in the last year. It is also a time to remember your loved ones and all the souls of the faithful departed, to pray for them and their eternal rest. Please consider joining us during this month of All Souls.

Saint Joseph Cemetery Reminder & Date Correction

All flower containers and decorations were to be removed from the Cemetery by October 1st. A Christmas wreath with a stand is permitted on any grave from November 15th-March 15th.

#iGIVECATHOLIC

The national day of Catholic giving is just around the corner! Giving Tuesday is December 1. This U.S. Catholic annual day of giving is when faithful from across the nation come together and raise charitable dollars for participating Catholic parishes, schools, and ministries. St. Joseph Parish and School will once again be participating. The advanced giving period begins November 16. Stay tuned until next week when we talk about the projects we will be raising money toward.

Give the Gift of Engagement Encounter

Support a couple's journey to a lasting marriage with the gift of Engagement Encounter—a weekend retreat focused on building a strong foundation for life together. Next session:

ENABLING WOMEN TO KNOW CHRIST THROUGH SCRIPTURE

Reclaiming Vatican II

If you are interested in purchasing this book for $20, please see Jennifer or Nicole in the faith formation office. It is a wonderful read and will help you find the answers you may have been searching for, for decades about what happened, what the documents said and how we reclaim the beauty of Vatican II.

Movie Matinee
Join Jennifer on Monday, November 9th at 2:00 pm
at Holy Redeemer for THE SCARLET AND THE BLACK.

The movie follows Father Hugh O'Flaherty, a Vatican priest in Nazi-occupied Rome, who secretly aids Allied airmen, POWs, and resistance families despite constant Gestapo surveillance. With gripping tension and moral courage, it showcases Gregory Peck's commanding performance. Praised for historical depth and emotional weight, it is a compelling watch. Popcorn and drinks served. Bring a friend.

Come as you are.
