We are invited to the heavenly feast.

Both the first reading and today's Gospel portray the heavenly kingdom as a banquet. Each time we participate we receive a foretaste of this heavenly feast and are nourished by Christ's Body and Blood. We can prepare for the feast with repentance and by clothing ourselves with good deeds.

Liturgy of the Word

In the first reading, Isaiah describes the mountain where the Lord will provide a feast for all peoples, wiping every tear and destroying death forever. Paul writes that he has learned to live in both humble circumstances and with abundance, and that he can do all things in Christ. In the Gospel, Jesus compares the kingdom of heaven to a king giving a wedding feast for his son.

One in Christ, United In Mission

Next Sunday, Oct. 18, Catholics throughout the world will celebrate the 100th anniversary of World Mission Sunday. This year's theme, One in Christ, United in Mission, reminds us that through baptism, every Catholic shares in the Church's missionary call. Our prayers and gifts help sustain 1,130 mission dioceses and territories around the world, supporting seminarians, religious sisters, catechists, children, health care and the building up of the Church in places where it is young, poor or persecuted.

Here in the Diocese of Erie, that same missionary spirit has taken a special form for 55 years through the Mission of Friendship with the Archdiocese of Yucatán, México. Today, the mission includes 84 families participating in the Amigos Family Sponsorship Program and 14 parishes connected through sister-parish relationships.

This centennial year also recalls the missionary legacy of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen, who served as national director of the Pontifical Mission Societies from 1950-1966 and called the missions his "greatest love."

If you or someone you know is interested in joining the Catholic Church, please invite them to reach out to Jennifer in the faith formation office 814-723-4222 ext 2004. We are in the inquiry phase of the program and look forward to welcoming and speaking with anyone who is considering this journey.

Ministry Highlight Weekend

Choir and Liturgical Environment are this month featured ministries. St. Joseph Choir typically sings at the 10:45 Sunday Mass but will occasionally sing at evening weekend Masses, Holy Days, and special liturgies. You need not be a professionally trained singer, just someone who likes to sing and make a joyful noise in praise and thanksgiving to our Lord! Choir practices on Wednesdays at 4:00pm in the church. If you are interested, you can either reach out to Fran Leto (choir director) or come to a practice.

Our Liturgical Environment is in need of a committee and leadership. This ministry is crucial to our worship as a community. Having the environment of our worship space be peaceful, beautiful and appropriate for each liturgical season is so important to our desire and ability to worship God. Can we worship in any circumstance and will it be beautiful? Absolutely! But having our space look loved and appreciated is a gift to God and His people. It is not difficult, the liturgy leads the way, but we need a guide and we need many hands to make the light work. Thank you for considering these most important gifts to our parish community!

Great Reads!

I know that many of you are not able to take advantage of our adult faith formation opportunities but if you have the chance please read/reread Colossians! It is so rich and really teaches us who Christ was and how to follow Him! Treat yourself and dive into Scripture. Also, the Reclaiming Vatican II book that we are studying is so good and it might inspire you to get to know what the documents of Vatican II actually said and what was intended.

Spend time this week with our God and His Church.

Living Rosary Sunday Oct. 25th @ 2:00PM

Living Rosary sign-ups are at the doors of the church. A living rosary is when each bead of the rosary is prayed by an individual. We'd like to get all 66 beads accounted for. Everyone is welcome, especially families and their children. Please consider participating in this beautiful devotion! Light hospitality and fellowship will follow.

Movie Matinee

Join Jennifer on Monday, October 19th at 2:00 pm at Holy Redeemer for FAITH OF ANGELS. Most of us remember this powerful story of the boy trapped in the mine in Utah. It was an urgent situation and we were glued to our televisions hoping and praying for this little boy and his family. It takes the faith and perseverance of just one to make miracles happen. Popcorn and drinks served. Bring a friend to this must see feature.
