MATTHEW 22:34-40

Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together. One of them, an expert in the law, tested him with this question: "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?"

Jesus replied: " 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'"

All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments."

Reminder & Date Correction

All flower containers and decorations were to be removed from the Cemetery by October 1st. A Christmas wreath with a stand is permitted on any grave from November 15th-March 15th.

Hallowtide

The celebration of All Saints' Day was established to honor all saints, known and unknown, who have attained heaven. This feast day was moved to November 1 by Pope Gregory III in the 8th century, and the vigil, All Hallows Eve, became a time for reflection on the lives of the saints and the hope of eternal life. Following All Saints' Day, the Church observes All Souls' Day on November 2, a day dedicated to praying for the souls of the faithful departed. Traditionally, All Hallows Eve has been a time for Catholics to engage in prayer and reflection on mortality, the afterlife, and the communion of saints. The modern customs associated with Halloween, such as dressing up and trick-or-treating, have evolved from older traditions that included honoring the dead and celebrating the harvests.

St. Joseph Memorial Mass of Remembrance is on November 7 at 5:30pm.

At this Mass we will remember in a special way all our parishioners who died in the last year. It is also a time remember your loved ones and all the souls of the faithful departed, to pray for them and their eternal rest. Please consider joining us during this month of All Souls.

(St. Joseph) The People of St. Luke & St. Joseph

Love for others flows from God's love.

The readings today emphasize that the Christian life is orientated toward others. God gives us specific instructions for how we are to treat others: to love them as we love ourselves. This is possible only after we learn to allow God to love us. The love we receive from God will naturally overflow into how we treat others.

Liturgy Of the Word

In the first reading, God gives the people of Israel specific instructions for how they are to treat others, especially those who are struggling. Paul tells the Thessalonians that their faith has become a model for other Christians.

In the Gospel, Jesus shares that the greatest commandments are love of God and love of neighbor.

World Mission Sunday

Thank you for your prayers and generosity on World Mission Sunday last weekend. The mission does not end with one collection or one Sunday. Every baptized person is called to carry the Gospel forward through prayer, sacrifice, generosity and the witness of daily life.

As the Diocese of Erie continues its 55-year Mission of Friendship with the Church in Yucatán, may we continue to live as one Church —one in Christ, united in mission.

Confirmation News

Please continue to pray for our 8th and 9th graders who will be at our diocesan Confirmation retreat on Saturday, November 7th.

We are excited to join over 300 youth from around our diocese for this inspiring, energetic and prayer filled event. Come Holy Spirit!

First Reconciliation Parent Session

The parent session for First Reconciliation students is Sunday, November 1st from 9:15- 10:30 am in the room at the base of the church entrance steps at Holy Redeemer. We will talk about the curriculum for sacrament prep, their retreat and celebration and what it means to be living out God's mercy in our families and accepting the incredible gift of God's love and mercy in our lives. Please pray for our young people and our adults who will celebrate this amazing gift of our Church this spring.

Reclaiming the Vatican II

If you are interested in purchasing this book for $20, please see Jennifer or Nicole in the faith formation office. It is a wonderful read and will help you find the answers you may have been searching for, for decades about what happened, what the documents said and how we reclaim the beauty of Vatican II.

Beginning November 2, the 2027

Mass book will be open for scheduling intentions.

The practice of requesting a Mass to be offered for loved ones, living or deceased, is a beautiful and meaningful part of our Catholic tradition. At St. Joseph Parish we have many requests for scheduling Mass intentions. Due to the limited number of weekend Masses, we initially ask that only two requests are made for weekend Masses, and 5 for weekday masses. After the majority of requests are received by the end of February and if weekend Masses are still available the book will be open for more requests. We try to honor all these requests to the best of our ability. Masses will be scheduled on a first come first served basis. Thank you for your understanding!
