

MISSIONARY WEEKEND We welcome Fr. John Paul VC from the North Indian Province, St. Thomas Province of the Vincentian Congregation. Fr John Paul will be sharing about the important work being done in the North Indian Missions this weekend at Masses. Your prayers and financial contributions play a crucial role in spreading the Gospel and providing assistance to the poor and needy. Together, we have the opportunity to bring the uplifting message of Jesus to those in need in India. Thank You!

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS As we ponder our trip to Indianapolis, many things stand out: morning rosary in the stadium followed by Mass, the number of priests, cardinals and bishops processing in was so moving, the 55,000 in attendance was touching, but the numbers of young religious and the number of different orders of religious was impressive. The young women were full of life and always smiling, always happy to greet each other. In addition, there were a tremendous number of seminarians attending and a tremendous number of young families. When we looked at all these young people, we said, "Thank you God." The Church is alive with young faith filled people and for that we say, "Thank you God." To end the day, we celebrated adoration and benediction. The music was awesome and the sparkle from the monstrance was like rays from heaven. Finally, the closing Mass included the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, which was a beautiful addition to an incredible Mass. The whole experience was very moving and you knew God was with us.
